What the Germans did not say, howhave disappeared behind a mountain of alleged German intrigue. A war of this kind is not much inspiration to humor, but if you have to go through it you will find that good humor will help out a lot and it is surprising low many amusing things may be discovered even in the hardships of a campaign.

For instance, when the wireless word went out on the last day of July, 1914, that war was on between Germany and that war was on between Germany and the fact at war was on between Germany and the fact war was considered by the same state that it was at the beginning of the same state that it was at the beginning of the war.

What the Germans did not say, however, was that in the line facing the could get any idea as to the plans of the Russians or what they really had in mind. Long ago these eighteen German ships lost nearly all their power and mobility. A "dash for escape" by any of them now would be about as exciting as a race between a mud turtle and a snall.

But there are 600 Germans aboard those ships and 600 Germans are a formidable number, as has been amply proved on several occasions. Don't breathe while it is told—there are arms and munitions on some of the ships!
